Danging at Lughnasa

Dancing as if language no longer existed because words were no longer necessary......" - Dancing at Lughnasa

The 2004 fall production Dancing at Lughnasa by Brian Friel depicts two days in the lives of the Mundy sisters in harvest time, 1936, Ireland. The fall show features the talents of junior and senior theatre performance majors and provides them with the opportunity to practice their craft in an intense setting. The cast rehearses every night, four hours a night, for three weeks under the direction of Dr. W. Doug Powers. "The students involved worked together for so long that at the end of the rehearsal period we were a family. Working with such great people on a show as beautiful as this is an experience at SU I will never forget."

~Erica Lopatofsky '05

The Mundy sisters: Erica Lopatofsky, Katie Mull, Marie Graf, Kelly Jean Graham, Amanda Anderson. Robert Thompson as Michael, the story's narrator.

"You find out life's this game of inches, so is football. Because in either game -- life or football -- the margin for error is so small. I mean, one half a step too late or too early and you don't quite make it. One half second too slow, too fast and you don't quite catch it. The inches we need are everywhere around us. They're in every break of the game, every minute, every second. On this team we fight for that inch. On this team we tear ourselves and everyone else around us to pieces for that inch. We claw with our fingernails for that inch. Because we know when we add up all those inches, that's gonna make the difference between winning and losing! Between living and dying!"

"Togetherness is a key ingredient for a college rugby team to become champions. The entire team, from rookies to veterans, became one functional unit. The rookies learned to listen, cooperate, and most of all work extremely hard to fulfill the team's expectations. The veterans came to practice ready to help, encourage, and train the rookies. Once a rugger, always a rugger!"

"...Reflect on your experiences and accomplishments. Remember the dedication, the pain, the jubilation, the camaraderie -- your family. Remember the feel of the oar in your hand, the swing, the perfect catch, the pull, the drive and the run of the boat beneath you. Instead, remember that the glory is always in the team." ~Joe Blasko, Novice Coach, Saint Ignatius HS (Cleveland) 1996-97

Our collective scores have dropped dramatically since the program began and that was very evident this spring. "Youth is not entirely a time of life, it is a state of mind. Nobody grows old by merely living a number of years. People grow old by deserting their ideals. You are as young as your faith, as old as your doubt, as young as your fear, as young as your fear, as young as your hope, as old as your despair."

~Douglass MacArthur

Many people will walk in and out of your life, but only true friends will leave footprints in your heart. To handle yourself, use your head; To handle others, use your heart. Anger is only one letter short of danger. If someone betrays once, it is his fault; If he betrays you twice, it is your fault. Great minds discuss ideas; Average minds discuss events: Small minds discuss people. He who loses money, loses much; He who loses a friend, loses much more: He who loses faith, loses all. Beautiful young people are accidents of nature, but beautiful old people are works of art. Learn from the mistakes of others, You can't live long enough to make them all vourself.

Michael,

You know your life is fantastic, when you look back and your memories -

- make you laugh more then cry (unless you cry from laughing so hard),
- put such an uncontrollable grin on your face, others think you must be crazy,
- lift your spirits and make you feel so truly blessed, that having a bad day becomes a rare occurance,
- -give you and overwhelming sense of peace and accomplishment, and
 - -remind you that God was...and is...always with you.

Your life is fantastic Michael! Always savor the memories you've made, and enjoy making many more as you continue to bike, hike, EuroRail, fly, and travel after your dreams!

We are so very proud of you and thank you for the fond memories we've shared, including this one -

May God continue to bless you, with Good Health, Fun, Love, and Laughter...and Keep the Wind At Your Back! Love and Congratulations, Mom, Dad & Jav

Congratulations on all your accomplishments. We are SO proud of you!! As you move into the next phase of your life, remember to believe in yourself and in something bigger than yourself. Discover the simple joys in life. Remember what Ferris said on his day off, "Life moves pretty fast. If you don't stop and look around once in awhile, you could miss it."

Cherish the friendships you have made along the way and stay close to your family.

Keep God first in your life. He will perpetually guide and guard you.

And lastly, we thank you for being such a terrific son.
